Just come and visit the Olneyville Branch located at One Olneyville Square, and you'll meet many people with friendly faces. You can see that everyone cares. Just enter the building and look up at the sign that says, "I love my neighborhood library". That's where you start! Walk through the aisle, and then look to your left. Look for the book that's titled Lift Off by the author Michael Collins, that's your #1 Clue.

Now don't stop, just continue around to the 700's aisle. Look for the book that's titled The Kids Summer Games Book that's your Clue #2.

Now move on to the 900's section where you'll explore history, biography, and geography too. Look for the book titled America on Wheels, New England & New York and you just found your Clue #3.

Just keep on going! Move up to the next aisle guess where you are? In the YA's aisle, just find me the book that's titled Close Encounters of The Third Kind that's Clue #4 you needed to find.

Don't give up you're almost there! Just move on to the Reference Area, look behind the book titled Rules of the Game, and there you'll find the final clue of the game "The Letterbox Treasure." That's what it is!

Did you like the adventure? Did you enjoy the game? Thank you for visiting the Olneyville Branch. "Your neighborhood library, your neighborhood friends, where you'll always find a smiling face and a caring staff always ready to serve. Thank you again, and please do come back now that you found us on the adventure you went on!
